OHIO ACADEMIC ADVISING ASSOCIATION

WHO ARE WE?

The Ohio Academic Advising Association (OHAAA) is a state allied organization of the National Academic Advising Association (NACADA). OHAAA was formed by a number of interested members of the Ohio advising community in June of 1996. The intent was to form a state advising association that could provide advisors the capability of networking on a local level as well as presenting at and/or attending programs at a yearly drive-in conference. Our first one day, drive-in conference was held in June of 1997, and since then, a yearly conference is held in mid-June each year.

WHAT DOES OHAAA DO?

OHAAA's main purpose is to raise the profile of academic advising with the academic community and to support the development and growth of academic advising in higher education in Ohio. OHAAA serves a constituency that includes academic advisors, counselors, faculty, administrators, and others in academic and student affairs concerned with the intellectual, personal growth and career development needs of students. OHAAA is the representative and advocate of academic advisors in institutions of higher education, and is a forum for discussion, debate and the exchange of information and ideas.
